Head to Heathrow for the return flight home full of memories of your amazing England experience

"XL Travel created the ideal experience for our team, exposing our players to the true culture of soccer in England. They have unique ties that offered us the opportunity to see two tremendous matches, train at facilities of English Premier League clubs and with their academy staff coaches (Manchester City, Everton) and played matches against top-level competition. The 24-hour support the XL Travel staff gave us was essential on a trip like this. I have taken both youth teams and now my University of Evansville team abroad with XL Travel, and I wouldn't think about traveling abroad without them"

Mike Jacobs – University of Evansville, Men's Head Coach.
